

Privacy policy

May 2018

We value your privacy as much as you do.

If you submit the form request, your contact details (personal data as defined by the EU General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)), will be emailed to our sales agents, your data will not be retained in a marketing database. Your email address and other personal data will not be shared with anyone that is not directly connected with RentalPoint Software.

You will NOT receive marketing emails from us.

You will NOT receive phone calls from us other than to respond to your initial interest in the product and/or services offered.

Your details will be retained by our sales agents only as long as your interest in the product is considered by the agent to be current. If no contact is active for 12 months then your details will be deleted.

RentalPoint Software complies with the EU General Data Protection Regulations.

To enquire whether or not your personal data is held by our sales agents, or to request erasure, please email sales@rentp.com